

Anemos Luxury Grand Resort Honored Once Again with the TUI Quality Award 2026

Anemos Luxury Grand Resort is delighted to share that it has been recognized once again with the prestigious TUI Quality Award for 2026. This important distinction highlights hotels and resorts that consistently meet high standards and deliver memorable stays for their guests.

The TUI Quality Award is considered one of the leading recognitions in the travel industry, based on feedback from millions of travelers worldwide. Being selected reflects the strong appreciation of guests and reinforces the resort's dedication to offering refined hospitality, attentive service, and a premium level of comfort.

At Anemos Luxury Grand Resort, the focus remains on delivering authentic experiences that reflect both the resort's identity and the charm of Georgioupolis, Chania. Looking ahead to the upcoming season, the team remains focused on further enhancing every aspect of the guest journey, aiming to create stays that are both distinctive and truly memorable.
